RESTAURANTS

I. Within walking distance (6 blocks) of the Royal York Hotel:

TORONTO DOMINION CENTRE, Wellington & Bay Streets, 366-6575, three excellent restaurants on the Concourse Level:

1. THE HERITAGE ROOM: good food and Canadiana decor
2. THE CARVERY: you may carve your own roasts here
3. THE LOCK AND KEY: good spot for lunch or snacks

"THE FIFTY-FOURTH": (at the top of the building) the view is breathtaking, so is the price

WALKER HOUSE: Front & York Streets, 363-4041, two dining rooms and three lounges

1. FRANZ JOSEF: Viennese food and decor, entertainment and dancing
2. THE RATHSKELLER: German atmosphere, food, and beverages, entertainment
3. SWISS BEAR: Alpine lounge, entertainment
4. THE LIVING ROOM: cosy and intimate bar
5. GRANNY'S: discotheque

TOM JONES STEAK HOUSE: 17 Leader Lane (near O'Keefe Centre), 366-6583, smart, intimate spot with wonderful steak, highly recommended

OLD WORLD CHEESE SHOP: 36 Wellington Street East, 366-1414, especially good for lunch or after-theatre snack

WINSTON THEATRE GRILL: 120 King Street West, 363-1627, small, quality restaurant

CAPTAIN'S TABLE: Lord Simcoe Hotel, 150 King St. West, 362-1848, nautical theme, features seafood and steak

II. Take a taxi:

Some of our best restaurants are in the Yorkville and Cumberland Street area. This happens to be the centre of Toronto's "Hippie" district, and in the evening you will find the streets literally jammed with the "Flower Children" and all that this implies. Some of the excellent restaurants in this district include these three:

MISTER TONY'S PLACE: 100 Cumberland Street, 925-3119, smart, different, no printed menu, one of the best places in town

L'AIGLON: 121 Yorkville Street, 925-8612, small, elegant, excellent French cuisine

THE WALRUS & THE CARPENTER: 136 Cumberland Street, 921-4744, quaint seafood spot, weathered planks, oysters a specialty

LE PROVENCAL: 23 St. Thomas Street, 924-3721, charming inn in the manner of the south of France, highly recommended

THREE SMALL ROOMS: Windsor Arms Hotel, 22 St. Thomas Street, 921-5141, luxury complex of 3 dining rooms, prices to match

ED'S WAREHOUSE: 266 King Street West, 366-6676, decor wild Victorian, waiters in blazers and boaters, nothing but excellent roast beef, fast service for patrons of the Royal Alexandra Theatre next door

PORTS OF CALL: 1145 Yonge Street, 924-9353, 3 dining rooms and 3 bars around the world

1. BALLON ROUGE: French bar, cocktails, dancing
2. SINGAPORE BAR: Asian atmosphere
3. LAST CHANCE SALOON: cocktails, entertainment reminiscent of the wild West
4. BALI HAI: Polynesian atmosphere and specialties
5. DICKENS ENGLISH INN: an English pub specializing in roast beef and Yorkshire pudding
6. CAESAR'S ROOM: classically Roman decor, good Italian food

STOP 33: Sutton Place Hotel, 955 Bay St., 924-9221, quietly sophisticated cocktail lounge on the top floor has a truly marvellous view, entertainment, dining room is downstairs

JULIE'S: 515 Jarvis St., 927-5771, attractive restored mansion, quite expensive, cocktail lounge upstairs, is called the Bombay Bicycle Club (not for those who like peace and quiet)

LA SCALA: 1121 Bay St. 925-1216, quiet atmosphere, excellent Italian food

KWONG - CHOW: 126 Elizabeth St. (Toronto's Chinatown area) 362-4322, best Chinese food, try stuffed barbecue duck
